

Cultural Encounters

Ezethu Tours

Want to experience the different cultures of the Eastern Cape?

At Ezethu Tours we are knowledgeable about the different cultures of the Eastern Cape. We were born here and have an intimate knowledge of the region.

Join us and experience what it is like to be a Xhosa family in an urban setting:

- Explore the spirituality of the Xhosa people,
- Taste traditional foods such as "umngqusho" samp
- Buy local crafts,
- The vibey sounds of the afro-soul music and other customs of AmaXhosa.

We not only promise you an authentic, innovative and interactive cultural experience, but one that will leave you with greater insight into the culture of AmaXhosa.

Ezethu Tours is committed to community upliftment, the support of local entrepreneurs and contributing to the economic growth of this region.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

- A visit to the South End Museum, providing a glimpse into the life and times of the vibrant multicultural South End community before forced removal was brought about by the Group Areas act under the apartheid regime.
- A visit to a homestead in the township to explore customs and traditions.
- A visit to a local market where traditional medicines are sold.
- A visit to a crafts centre where you can purchase gifts produced locally (Time permitting you will get an opportunity to learn how to create a beaded necklace or wrist band.)
- A light traditional meal with a Xhosa family.
- Drinks at a local tavern.
