Description

"Experience Africa", "Experience Life", "Experience Kwantu"

Kwantu Game Reserve offers you a feast for the imagination catering from a Big 5 African adventure to five star hospitality.

This magical enchanting place is situated in the Eastern Cape; it is home to the village of Sidbury that was built by the British Settlers to support sheep farming communities. It is the dwelling to 5 of the 7 biomes and boasts a past as rich as its abundant wildlife population.

The Kwantu Game Reserves offer a variety of accommodation to suit your style. From its family styled Pollards Inn hotel to its luxury bush lodges that overlooks the tranquil dam with complete peace and privacy. It is a place where you can enjoy a peaceful and relaxed stay.

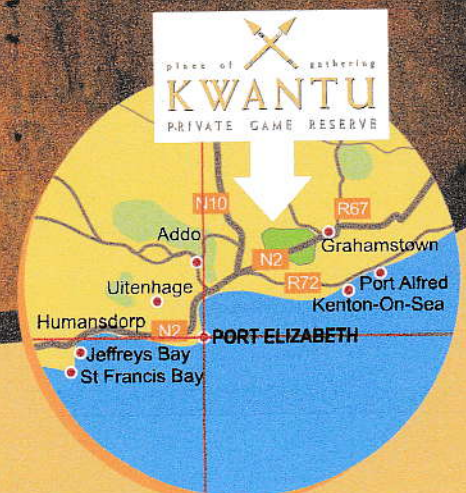

Upon visiting the game reserve the halaal African traditional cuisine with a touch of spice is an absolute must have because it is one of the lodge's main attractions.

Kwantu also offers a honeymoon to remember to newlyweds. The honeymooners lodge boasts with a queen sized bed and en suite bathroom which opens onto your own personal deck, ensuring complete peace and privacy.

The game reserve offers day visit trips which include you experiencing the Big 5 and the abundance of wildlife, birds and flora the reserve has to offer. During the tour the game rangers will enlighten you with stories of the wildlife and their experiences. This tour will leave you wanting more of what this spectacular place has to offer.

The game reserve has an Education and Rehabilitation centre that is home to many different species of predator. Not forgetting the Kwantu elephant Sanctuary where guests can touch, feel, interact and ride Africa's gentle giants.

Kwantu Game Reserve will capture your thoughts during your stay and leave you with a lifetime of memories. You will indeed get a slice of the African Adventure.

Pricing Policy

- » 12 and above are considered as full price
- » 5 to 11 inclusive are considered as children and pay half price sharing with the adults
- » 4 and below are considered as infants and are no charge

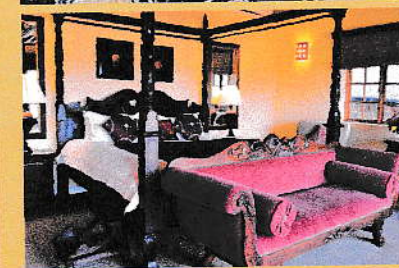

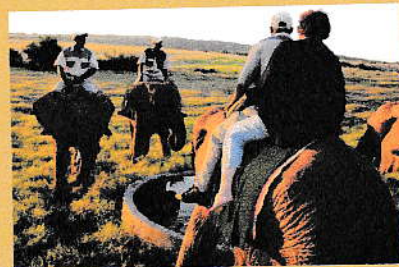

As our pricing is all inclusive and per person sharing, a third adult would still be on the normal adult fare, but we would then allocate the family superior room to the group. A single traveller would be charged a 50% supplement on the rate.
