

-The only true links course in Africa-

Consistently rated as 1 of the Top 15 golfcourses in South Africa

Elegant Club House

The course centres around the old, white-walled, double-storey Club House. Elegantly set, it extends a warm and welcoming feeling to all.

The 19th hole is filled with a rich tradition and memories of years gone by. There is nothing better than to sit on the balcony and enjoy a 'cold one' whilst looking out over Nelson Mandela Bay.

Humewood Club Restaurant / Bar

The club Restaurant is popular amongst members and local patrons for its traditional "Humewood" Breakfast.

Other popular items on the menu include light meals in the form of Golfers Baskets, the "Humewood Burger", Fish and Chips and various traditional toasted sandwiches.

Humewood also has conference and venue facilities for hire.

Genuine Seaside Links

A round is a must for any golfer visiting the 'Friendly City' of Port Elizabeth.

Humewood is one of only a few genuine links courses found outside of Britain. It is situated on the sand dunes on the shores of Algoa Bay, Port Elizabeth. The fairways are exposed, undulating and wide to compensate for strong winds. Bunkers are few with steep faces. Greens are firm and fast, the rough is thick coastal bush and there are no water hazards.

Humewood boasts a full length driving range as well as dedicated chipping and putting green.

Variety of Animal life

The course boasts a variety of animal life with an abundance of plovers, otherwise known as "kiewietjies", one of which makes up the club's emblem.

SA Amateur and SA Open

The Humewood course was opened for play in October 1931 and hosted both the SA Amateur and SA Open in 1934. It went on to host the SA Amateur 10 times, the last being in 2007, and hosted the SA Open 5 times, the last being at the end of 2006. Since 2014 the Sun Boardwalk Challenge has been played at Humewood.

Bobby Locke

The great Bobby Locke in his day, considered Humewood to be the best course in South Africa, rating it alongside the best links courses in Britain. He said that Humewood Golf Club was good enough to host The British Open should this Championship ever have to be played outside of Britain.

The Pro Shop

The Humewood Pro Shop offers a fantastic selection of golf clothing and accessories. Anything you may require connected to the game of golf, can be acquired from the Pro Shop.
