AMAKHALA GAME RESERVE

Situated in the Greater Addo and Frontier Country area is a spectacular stretch of rolling hills near the coastline of the Eastern Cape that has undergone a remarkable transformation into a vibrant internationally renowned conservation initiative.

Set in the heart of this visionary reclamation area is the 18 000 acre Malaria-free Amakhala Game Reserve, offering guests accommodation in a selection of luxury star rated establishments made up of restored Colonial Country houses, Safari lodges, Tented and partially Tented camps. Here the Big 5 roam freely on the land they were driven from hundreds of years before.

The Amakhala Game Reserve holds personalised attention to detail and warm hospitality as hallmarks of any guest experience with some of the lodges owned by direct descendants of the 1820 Settlers the Amakhala story is steeped in Eastern Cape history.

The Amakhala Game Reserve is renowned for its truly awesome topography and wildlife. Ideally situated at the end of the Garden Route, this unique private reserve offers Big 5 game viewing as well as cheetah, giraffe, zebra and over 16 antelope species in breath-taking scenery that will capture your imagination.

Experience professionally guided safaris in game viewers, an eden river cruise on the meandering Bushman's River and a casual walking safari. Soak up our African Eden relaxing in pure luxury, indulge in a spa treatment or visit the Amakhala Foundation initiatives and finish off the perfect day star gazing under the African sky.

The Amakhala Foundation is home to the social projects of Amakhala Game Reserve, as well as the educational projects of the Conservation Centre. The Foundation is funded by outside donor bodies as well as through the payment of bed levies from Amakhala's commercial lodges.

Education & Skills Development

Staff members have been put through various in-house training programmes on an ongoing basis, to enable them to take on new positions and responsibilities. Staff are involved in Hospitality Learnerships, an International Labour Organisation course, and leadership and financial skills training.

Craft Centre

Unemployed members of the local community are given an opportunity to generate income through our Craft Centre, where beaded articles, sewing items and printed items are sold. Beaded bracelets made by the teenagers of the Isipho Project are also sold here. One-quarter of the sale price of the bracelets goes to a bursary fund to assist these teenagers with some tertiary education.

Guests and members of the public may visit the Craft Centre during the week to purchase articles.

Isipho Charity Trust

This is an independent charity operating in the nearby town of Paterson. It supports over 300 children through 2 preschool classes, an after-care programme, feeding scheme, material support for schooling, and psycho-social support. It also provides much-needed HIV/AIDS education in the local community. Amakhala has been part of Isipho's development almost from the outset: assisting with food parcels, fund raising as well as time and expertise through the services of two board members.

Environmental Education

This programme aims to cultivate an understanding and love of nature in the children who visit the Conservation Centre, thus increasing awareness and concern so that future generations can enjoy our natural habitats. Local primary school children attend education days at the ACC, while high school pupils are sponsored to enjoy a day of learning about habitats and tourism as well as experiencing the animals in their natural environment. Over 1,000 visitors spend time at the Conservation Centre each year.

School Bursary Fund

The administration of a primary school bursary fund carried out by the Amakhala Foundation. This fund assists staff members of Amakhala Game Reserve with school fees for their young children to attend the nearby primary school. In addition to this programme, the Amakhala Foundation has opened a preschool to support and enhance the Early Childhood Development of staff children aged 3 to 5 years old. The preschool teacher is a member of the local community and receives training.

Award Nominations

2014: Mail & Guardian Greening the Future Awards. Runner up in the category Skills for "Sustainability Award".

2012: Amakhala Foundation listed as a finalist in the category of "Best Social Involvement" for an Umvelo Award and as a finalist for a Virgin Holidays Responsible Tourism Award.

2011: The Conservation Centre nominated as a finalist for a Kudu Award, for the environmental education programme that it runs.

2008: At the Kudu Award Ceremony; an annual SANParks event in Pretoria, the ACC was presented with an Environmental Education/Capacity Building Merit Award for its commitment to conservation through educational programmes which are aimed at imparting knowledge and skills to enhance the understanding of the environment.
